RIGHTS FOR SUSTAINABILITY AND SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOVERNANCE

February 22, 2012
13:45 - 15:00h

As part of the Rights for Sustainability (R4S) Initiative, IBON International is inviting all civil society actors and government representatives to its Greenroom activity entitled “Rights for Sustainability and Sustainable Development Governance”, which is slated for February 22, at 13.45 to 15.00h.

This activity aims to promote a rights-based approach to sustainable development governance as a way of ensuring that inter- and intra-generational equity and justice are central considerations in the reform agenda at Rio+20 and beyond. Confirmed speakers include Chantal Carpentier of UN DESA, Neth Dano of ETC Group, Yahya Msangi of ITUC Africa, Daniel Magraw of CIEL and Paul Quintos of IBON International.

For information on how you can participate in the workshop, please get in touch with Paul Quintos at pquintos@iboninternational.org or visit www.iboninternational.org for more updates.
